

KSGBS's

Bharat Ratna Indira Gandhi College of Engineering,

Kegaon, Solapur

Vision, Mission, Quality Policy of Institute

Vision

“Technical Excellence for Social Transformation”

Mission

"To achieve the growth through intellectual supremacy, technological advancement and ethical soundness."

"To provide high quality education and fair, honest, courteous profession to our Stake holder."

"To recognize the importance of each individual human resource in the success of the Institute."

Quality Policy

The Institute plans to provide necessary facilities to the faculty to upgrade themselves and to have overall academic development. The staff will be encouraged for quality improvement and outstanding performance for achieving common goals. To provide training opportunities for teaching as well as non-teaching staff members for enhancing their skill. To promote faculties for participating in various Conferences, Seminars, Workshop and Symposia to have dialogue with leading industry and technical institute. To from continues system for students, patents, employees, stakeholders to improve teaching learning process so to build total management system.